Detect Data

You have a flair for finding data density. You can track down super-dense concentrations of data by seeing if it is leaking onto beings around it. If they have a  $\beta$  score of 0, they are free of leaked data. If they have a  $\beta$  score of 1, they have been close to the data-leaking item. If they have a  $\beta$  score of 2, they have been in close, likely continuous, contact with a data-leaking item.

Psych Lim: Mental Degradation

Thirty minutes into the game, and every thirty minutes thereafter, lower your  $\Omega$  score by 1. Ignore this ability if you are in control of your real body, for the duration of time you are in your body.

Make dream controller

You can jury-rig the existing technology to create a device that can get you out of the simulation. You require the gem within the wedding ring as a focusing device. If you put the completed mental amplifier, the completed head-mounted display, and the wedding ring on a table, and spend five minutes using this ability, you can create the dream controller. When you do, destroy all three items and see a GM.
